

REOPENING PLAN EQUITY ANALYSIS

As school districts prepare for the fall, it is essential to prioritize educational equity alongside the paramount health and safety requirements. The Education Trust–New York has reviewed school district reopening plans based on equity criteria drawn from the requirements and recommendations in state guidelines.

OVERALL EQUITY NOTES

- EQUITY HIGHLIGHT: Yonkers’s reopening plan describes how the district will proactively and regularly identify the social-emotional needs of returning students, including by engaging parents and families.
- EQUITY CONCERN: Yonkers’s reopening plan does not appear to provide explicit methods for outreach to students who did not engage in distance learning during the spring.
- EQUITY CONCERN: Yonkers’s reopening plan does not assign each student an individual ally to make contact every day.

MAXIMIZING IN-PERSON INSTRUCTIONAL TIME WITHIN HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

1 The district reopening plan returns students from all grade levels to in-person instruction.

STRONG EVIDENCE

2 The district reopening plan indicates if certain students will be prioritized to return to in-person instruction more frequently based on educational needs.

STRONG EVIDENCE

3 The district reopening plan leverages collaborative community partnerships, such as after-school program providers, to strengthen the district’s initiatives and/or expand its capacity and reach.

SOME EVIDENCE

PROVIDING EQUITABLE INSTRUCTION AND ENGAGING ALL STUDENTS

4 The district reopening plan demonstrates use of a locally determined formative or diagnostic assessment to determine individual student needs and target extra help to ensure academic needs are addressed.

SOME EVIDENCE

Note: The district’s plan does not describe what assessments will be used or how they will inform instruction.

5 The district reopening plan provides live daily instruction aligned with grade-level learning standards to all students in all grade levels during blended or distance learning.

SOME EVIDENCE

Note: The district's plan includes instruction five days per week, with a "flex day."

6 The district reopening plan describes how school districts will use a variety of creative methods to reach out to students and their families who did not engage in distance learning. School policies and procedures must focus on the academic consequences of lost instructional time and address absences before students fall behind in their learning.

NO EVIDENCE

7 The district reopening plan describes how districts will assign each student an "ally" – such as counselors, coaches, social workers, psychologists, and other school staff in addition to teaching staff – who is responsible to check in on the student every day, whether instruction is in-person, remote, or through a hybrid model.

NO EVIDENCE

8 The district reopening plan includes information on how the district will provide multiple ways for students to participate in learning, which includes routine meaningful feedback on student assignments and support from an appropriately certified teacher whether instruction is delivered in-person, remotely, or through a hybrid model.

SOME EVIDENCE

Note: The district's plan does not include clear and consistent expectations to support students and families in remote learning and provisions for instruction in multiple modalities

9 The district reopening plan describes a mechanism to collect and report daily teacher-student engagement or attendance while in a remote or hybrid schedule.

SOME EVIDENCE

Note: The district's plan does not describe how it will track engagement, not just attendance, and use the data.

MEETING SOCIAL-EMOTIONAL NEEDS

10 The district reopening plan proactively and regularly identifies the social-emotional needs of returning students, including by engaging parents and families.

STRONG EVIDENCE

11 The district reopening plan includes a strategy for providing social-emotional assistance or referrals to students and families.

SOME EVIDENCE

SUPPORTING STUDENTS WITH UNIQUE LEARNING NEEDS

12 The district reopening plan specifies how it will address the learning loss experienced by many English language learners (ELLs), in both their English language development and mastery of content area knowledge.

STRONG EVIDENCE

Note: The district's plan explicitly addresses learning loss for English language learners.

13 The district reopening plan describes how the district will ensure access to the necessary accommodations; modifications; supplementary aids, evaluations, and related services; and technology (including assistive technology) to meet the unique disability-related needs of students.

STRONG EVIDENCE

14 The district reopening plan prioritizes equity and access for all students, including students experiencing homelessness, regardless of the instructional model implemented.

NO EVIDENCE

PROVIDING ACCESS TO STRONG EDUCATORS

15 The district reopening plan includes regular substantive interaction between teachers and students.

STRONG EVIDENCE

Note: The district's plan describes daily student-teacher interaction.

16 The district reopening plan includes professional learning that addresses staff's understanding of mental health, well-being, trauma-responsive and restorative practices, and social-emotional learning to support students.

STRONG EVIDENCE

Note: The district's plan describes professional learning opportunities for all staff on culturally and linguistically responsive-sustaining practices, implicit bias and structural racism, and facilitating difficult conversations about race.

17 The district reopening plan identifies and addresses any additional professional development needs for administrators, teachers, and teaching assistants for the upcoming school year, and particularly those needs related to designing effective remote/online learning experiences and best practices for instruction in remote/online settings.

STRONG EVIDENCE

Note: The district's plan describes how the district will ensure that all teachers and administrators receive targeted professional learning for ELLs focused on utilizing technology to promote student independence and engagement, providing effective and meaningful feedback, and promoting peer-to-peer interaction.

ADDRESSING FAMILIES' AND EDUCATORS' TECHNOLOGY NEEDS

18 The district reopening plan includes information on how the district will have knowledge of the level of access to devices and high-speed internet all students have in their places of residence.

SOME EVIDENCE

19 The district reopening plan includes information on how the district, to the extent practicable, will address the need to provide a device for exclusive use to students who currently do not have access regardless of whether an in-person, remote, or hybrid model is utilized.

SOME EVIDENCE

20 The district reopening plan includes information on how the district, to the extent practicable, will address the need to provide consistent, reliable access to high-speed internet at a sufficient level to fully participate in remote/online learning (e.g., a hotspot) to students who currently do not have sufficient access regardless of whether an in-person, remote, or hybrid model is utilized.

SOME EVIDENCE

21 The district reopening plan includes information on how the district, to the extent practicable, will address the need to provide a device for exclusive use to teachers who currently do not have access regardless of whether an in-person, remote, or hybrid model is utilized.

STRONG EVIDENCE

Note: Although not noted in the district plan, the district provides all teachers with a laptop.

22 The district reopening plan includes information on how the district, to the extent practicable, will address the need to provide consistent, reliable access to high-speed internet at a sufficient level to fully participate in remote/online teaching (e.g., a hotspot) to teachers who currently do not have sufficient access regardless of whether an in-person, remote, or hybrid model is utilized.

SOME EVIDENCE

Note: All teachers will work in school buildings with internet access whether instruction is in-person or remote, but the district's plan does not include provisions for internet access if school buildings are closed.

ADOPTING ANTI-RACIST POLICIES AND PRACTICES

23 The district reopening plan describes instructional experiences that are inclusive, culturally responsive, consider the needs of all students, and adhere to all established state regulations and guidelines.

SOME EVIDENCE

24 The district reopening plan describes how all grade 7-12 students will have equitable access to high quality rigorous instructional opportunities [consistent with NYSED guidance on access to advanced courses].

SOME EVIDENCE

Note: The district will maintain existing course access policies that have led to continued improvement in equitable access to Algebra 1 for middle school students.

25 The district reopening plan describes the implementation of restorative practices within the learning community.

SOME EVIDENCE

IMPROVING FAMILY ENGAGEMENT AND COMMUNICATION

26 The district reopening plan describes how districts will engage with school stakeholders and community members (e.g., students, parents/legal guardians of students, and others) in developing their reopening plan and identify those that participated in the reopening planning.

SOME EVIDENCE

27 The district reopening plan describes a clear communication plan available in multiple languages and disseminated through multiple modalities (e.g., email, online platform, and/or by phone) for how students and their families/caregivers can contact the school and teachers with questions about their instruction and/or technology.

STRONG EVIDENCE

Note: The district's plan describes clear ways that families can provide feedback.

28 The district reopening plan describes communication with families regarding school meal availability and access through multiple means in the languages spoken by families.
